

Dr Mia Campbell, PhD

Chartered Psychologist

Contact

Newcastle upon Tyne
07940140902
campbellmia97@yahoo.co.uk

Education

Northumbria University Newcastle
PhD Health Psychology
Master's Degree Health
Psychology
Bachelor's Degree
Psychology

Key skills

Research Design & Methodology
Project Management
Data Analysis & Evaluation
Digital Health Technology
Public Speaking & Science
Communication
Collaboration
Partnership Development
Knowledge Translation

Professional summary

Accomplished psychologist with extensive academic experience and a proven track record of translating complex research into actionable insights. Skilled in project leadership, technology development, and effective communication, with a strong ability to bridge academic knowledge and practical applications in the private sector.

Experience

2025-present

Founder • FoodWise Psychology

2018-present

Senior Lecturer in Psychology • Teesside University

2013-2018

Research Assistant • Lecturer Assistant • Northumbria University

2000-2013

Contractor • Self-Employed

Conducted cutting-edge research. Designed and delivered innovative undergraduate and postgraduate teaching. Managed collaborative research projects. Founded a psychology practice.

Professional Highlights

Co-developed two health-focused smartphone applications for self-management of illness. Transformed academic research into practical technological solutions. Managed entire development lifecycle from concept to implementation.

Leadership

Led complex research projects with measurable outcomes
Expertise in designing, implementing, and evaluating research initiatives. Skilled at synthesising complex information for diverse stakeholders.

References

On request.